Before benefit payment can commence IPM requires the following:

- The full transfer value and associated transfer information
- The re-registration of any assets being transferred in specie to be complete
- · Any contributions that are to be included in the Benefit Crystallisation Event
- If applicable, HMRC certificate showing any enhancement to the Standard Lifetime Allowance
- · Evidence of age
- · Evidence of your name and address (anti money laundering verification)
- If you have already partially taken benefits from your IPM SIPP through Capped Drawdown or Flexi-access Drawdown we will need to value your fund before we can pay your Uncrystallised Funds Pension Lump Sum
- Full answers to the questions in section 2 'About You'

Uncrystallised Funds Pension Lump Sum

- Your Uncrystallised Funds Pension Lump Sum will normally be comprised partly of a 25% tax free element. The remaining 75% will be subject to income tax at your marginal rate.
- Your Uncrystallised Funds Pension Lump Sum must be paid as a one off payment and cannot be paid monthly. It will be paid to your designated bank account by CHAPS which incurs a bank charge unless otherwise stated.

Your Bank Account Details

The bank account to which your Uncrystallised Funds Pension Lump Sum is paid must be held in your name (joint accounts are acceptable). The account must be able to accept CHAPS payments.

Valuations

- Valuations need to be produced in accordance with section 272(3) of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 (TCGA92). - If the assets in the SIPP include commercial property for which we do not hold a current valuation, you will need to appoint a Chartered Surveyor to provide a current valuation. In order to be deemed current, the property valuation will need to be within 3 months of the date of crystallisation. Please provide IPM with the details of the surveyor you wish to be instructed on your behalf.
- If investments are currently suspended it may be necessary for IPM to be provided with more detailed information about the investment before being able to complete the calculations. This may delay the payment to you.
- Please note that IPM can not agree to the use of an investment's acquisition cost (or Book value) where it is clear that there is a more realistic realisable value available.

How to complete this UFPLS Request form

The UFPLS Request form needs completing every time a member wishes to start drawing benefits or additional benefits from the scheme in this way.

The majority of the form is self explanatory, requesting personal details and the requirements of the scheme member. However, section 3 of the form is a little more complex and deals with the information that HMRC require the scheme administrator (IPM) to collect.

The pension legislation changed on 6th April 2006 "A day". At this time the concept of a Lifetime Allowance was introduced i.e. the total amount of pensions saving that an individual can amass and on which the substantial tax advantages given to pension funds will apply.

The Lifetime Allowance spans all of a member's pension schemes. Therefore when benefits are drawn from the IPM scheme we are required to ask what is being drawn from other arrangements and the value of this pension (expressed as a percentage of the Lifetime Allowance).

Unfortunately the position where a member is already in receipt of benefits pre A day is a little complicated. At the time the benefit was drawn, the Lifetime Allowance concept did not exist, therefore the member will not have been given a certificate by that scheme administrator showing the value of the benefits (expressed as a percentage of the Lifetime Allowance). As a result, on the first BCE after A day, IPM needs to check that the additional benefits will be within the limits, by assessing the value of the pension already in payment. Please provide details of the paying scheme together with a certificate from them showing the pension in payment at A-Day.

Furthermore, even if IPM do not require a certificate from the other scheme administrator(s) the scheme member will need to notify them that they have now started to draw benefits from IPM. This is because the legislation requires them to produce a certificate, showing the value of the benefits they are paying, expressed as a percentage of the Lifetime Allowance, as at the first BCE (the first date the member draws additional benefits) after A day. This certificate must be given to and retained by the scheme member and produced to any scheme administrator from whom a request for pension benefits is subsequently requested.

Failure to produce a Lifetime Allowance Certificate from all schemes from which a member is receiving benefits will delay the payment of any additional pension benefits.

Once a member is in receipt of a an Uncrystallised Funds Pension Lump Sum they immediately become subject to the Money Purchase Annual Allowance rules. This means they will have an annual allowance of £10,000 for the 2017/2018 tax year onwards for money purchase pension savings. If this happens and the member is also a member of any other pension schemes under which they are an 'accruing member' then they must within 91 days of receiving the Flexi-access Drawdown pension payment, report to each scheme administrator that they have received the payment and the date.

An 'accruing member' is

- an active member of the scheme on that day as a result of there being arrangements for the accrual of benefits under a cash balance arrangement or hybrid arrangement or
- · a relevant contribution is made under the scheme on that day

Finally, the FCA are concerned that every individual is provided with suitable risk warnings, depending on their individual circumstances. The FCA require IPM to retain evidence of the warnings issued. In this connection no benefits can be paid until IPM has been provided with the information it needs to give these appropriate warnings.
